

Charleston County School Board Forum

September 15 — International Longshoremen's Association Hall

The Quality Education Project (QEP) and local partners are sponsoring a forum with candidates running for the Charleston County School Board.

The nine candidates running for the five open seats on the Consolidated School Board – Chris Collins, Russ Patterson, Louis Smith, Kevin Hollinshead,,Todd Garrett, Tony Lewis, Priscilla Jeffery, Gary Leonard, and Michael Miller – have been invited to participate. Students and community organization representatives from Charleston County will be asking questions that will focus on how the candidates intend to improve public education.

Your vote matters to our young scholars!

This event is free and open to the public.

Charleston County Board of Elections will be on site to register voters, take Voter Photo ID pictures, and assist with changes to voter registration information. Be ready to vote on November 8!
